Active Bodies, Active Minds

Below are 15 games that will keep your children active. Your instructor will assign each person one or two games. Your job is to find out how the games are played and to come back and tell the rest of your group.

- Duck, Duck, Goose
- Red Rover, Red Rover
- Hokey-Pokey
- Hopscotch
- Red Light, Green Light
- Snow Snake
- London Bridge
- Farmer in the Dell
- Ring around the Rosy
- Simon Says
- Follow the Leader
- Leap Frog
- Dodge Ball
- Musical Chairs
- Sardines
The Game: __________________________________________

How to play: ________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

What’s needed: ______________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

How to make it safe: __________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________